

Suebnathitam School was founded on 13th November, 1947 according to the announcement of the Ministry of Education and the foundation of the Church of Christ in Thailand by using the name of Suebnathitam Church as the school name. It is located in Saraphi District, Chiang Mai province, Thailand.

In 1947, the school first started to provide an education for the children of church members only. Later, the school was expanded, so Suebnathitam Church moved the school campus to its present location and changed the operator to McKean Hospital. In 1982, the school board was appointed for operation.

The school was supported by the American Missionaries and the organizations in the foundation of the Church of Christ in Thailand for constructed the buildings included a kindergarten building, a primary building, a secondary building, a school office, a hall and a canteen.

At present Suebnathitam School is providing education to all students from kindergarten to 9th grade. In the whole school there are 700 students, 44 teachers and staffs. It is situated on 6 acres.

School vision : School of learning and quality of life development.

With 70 years of commitment and dedication, Suebnathitam School is proud to have provided education and support to the community. Our continuous efforts to help children realize their potential and achieve their educational goals have been hugely trusted and supported by the parents, students and the community. We focus on developing strong foundations to help students reach their fullest potential. Our goal is to prepare students to become lifelong learners to meet ever changing future challenges. Not only do we stress academic achievement, but also emphasize the importance of living meaningfully with kindness and love.
